

Fill A Backpack need rises

Organizers for Fill A Backpack Fill A Need, the program that gives school supplies to low-income students from Marathon County, are asking for donations and volunteers.

The program has received more than 5,500 requests for tickets to the program from school districts, a 26 percent increase over last year. The tickets will be given by district to qualified students, and the students will be able to get school supplies Aug. 20 at the Wausau National Guard Armory.

Donations of money can be made now, and people will be able to donate supplies at drop-off sites throughout the county starting in July. Volunteers will be needed starting Aug. 15. Sign-up for volunteers begins July 5.

To find out more details about donations and volunteering, call 715-848-2927.

Wausau Daily Herald
June 24, 2011

Fill A Backpack need rises

Organizers for Fill A Backpack Fill A Need, the program that gives school supplies to low-income students from Marathon County, are asking for donations and volunteers.

The program has received more than 5,500 requests for tickets to the program from school districts, a 26 percent increase over last year. The tickets will be given by district to qualified students, and the students will be able to get school supplies Aug. 20 at the Wausau National Guard Armory.

Donations of money can be made now, and people will be able to donate supplies at drop-off sites throughout the county starting in July. Volunteers will be needed starting Aug. 15. Sign-up for volunteers begins July 5.

To find out more details about donations and volunteering, call 715-848-2927.

Wausau Daily Herald
June 24, 2011